WRITTEN FINDINGS OF THE WASHINGTON STATE NOXIOUS WEED CONTROL BOARD

Scientific Name:	Cenchrus longispinus (Hack.) Fern.
Common Name:	Longspine sandbur
Family:	Gramineae
Legal Status:	Class B:	(a) (b) (c)	regions 1, 2, 3, 4, 5, 7, 8 Adams County of region 6 except for that area lying within Intercounty Weed District No. 52 Intercounty Weed District No. 51.

Description and Variation:

Economic Importance: Spreads readily and increasing in the Northwest. May occur in orchards, cultivated fields and thin stands of alfalfa.

Geographical Distribution:

Habitat: Sandy and disturbed soils, roadsides and abandoned fields.

History:

Growth and Development: Annual

Reproduction: Seeds

Response to Herbicides:

Response to Cultural Method:

Biocontrol Potentials:

References:

Longspine Sandbur. 1974. A Pacific Northwest Extension Publication.